TeleCom Technology
Partner Since 1999

Stronger Together:
JetCom Joins With Hospitality Industry To Beat
The Covid-19 Challenge

As president of JetCom Smart Communications you have my word we are personally committed to helping your organization work through the challenges of the Covid-19 crisis.

We've introduced three innovative programs allowing you to reduce costs, improve operational abilities and keep management and staff communicating effectively, while providing improved services to your guests.

We've been supplying the hospitality industry with superior telecom solutions since 1999. We've always been on the cutting edge of introducing and installing new technologies and guest-centric service platforms, and ensuring they work seamlessly for optimal guest satisfaction, whether your property is a new build or you're replacing an existing, outdated system. The current situation is just another challenge that, together, we will meet and beat.

The Covid-19 challenge won't last forever. Properties willing to implement creative strategies to improve their technology infrastructure, lower costs, keep their staff working effectively together and service their guests will not only survive but ultimately thrive.

Look to JetCom to help make that happen.

Problem:

1

COVID-19 crisis forces closure of some properties or drastically reduced occupancy rates.

2

Management and staff are forced to work remotely yet still perform effectively as a team while servicing guests.

3

Drastically reduced or non-existent revenue curtails needed investments and makes day-to-day operations difficult.

Solution:

1

Implement programs offering flexible financing options.

2

Work with vendors who prioritize long-term relationships over short-term profits.

3

Institute programs which help property survive current challenges while positioning organization for quick turnaround and growth.
